GINS

SCOTTISH GINS

Price includes draft mixer.

Caorunn

Produced in the Highlands of Scotland, an infusion of five handpicked Celtic botanicals. This gives the gin an invigorating, clean, crisp, aromatic with a long dry finish.

Hendrick's

Girvan best kept secret, the gin is made small batched using; coriander, juniper, citrus peel and a marvellous infusion of rose petal and cucumber.

Rock Rose

Made in the very north of Scotland. Produced with some unusual but local botanicals including rose root, sea buckthorn, rowan berries and blueberries, this is a powerful and yet full of zesty citrus and berry notes.

Daffy's

The quest at Daffy's is to make the best London dry gin which can be enjoyed straight. Lebanese mint, juniper, coriander, angelica, lemon peel, cassia and orris are all used to produce this exceptionally fresh, smooth and truly original gin.

Boe Superior

A hand crafted Scottish gin made in small batches and distilled using the finest grain, handpicked botanicals and spices.

Boe Violet

A vibrant variation on the Boe gin recipe, which has been infused with violets! Surely an excellent tippie for the summer months, this will go well in a classic G&T and likely make some dynamically cocktails too...

Boe Peach & Hibiscus

Delicate aromas of peach and hibiscus abound in this cracking gin liqueur with a slightly sweet finish.

Boe Bramble

A gin liqueur with masses amount of bramble fruit aromas with a touch of sweetness on the finish.

Edinburgh Gin

Distilled in the shadows of Edinburgh Castle, small batch distillation using the finest botanicals in Scotland. A classic gin with citrus aromas and hints of juniper and heather. Raspberry Liqueur • Rhubarb & Ginger • Elderflower

Eden Mill

The Spirit of St Andrews. Classic gin with a unique twist. The interaction between seabuckthorn berries, lemon balm and bitter citrus resulting in a light complex spirit.

The Botanist

Made on Islay using 22 handpicked Celtic botanicals and flowers to produce a complexed dry gin with a clean cut aromatic finish.

OTHER GINS

Price includes draft mixer.

Gordons

No intro required to the world's leading gin.

Gordon Pink Gin

A newly released gin but already one of the top selling gins in the UK, loads of summer fruit aromas abound in this far too easy to drink gin.

Bombay Sapphire

Tantalisingly smooth and complex, with tastes of fresh citrus and juniper combined with elegant light spicy finish.

Tanqueray

A London dry gin in style and is a perfect balance of four botanicals; juniper, coriander, angelica and liquorice and is distilled four times.

Whitley Neill

A hand crafted gin which uses herbs and spice of South Africa to add a more exotic edge to this well-made gin.

Sipsmith

The quintessential expression of a classic traditional London dry gin. Bold, complex and aromatic.

MALTS

ISLAND MALTS

Island Malts all have in common a degree of peatiness to them that you don't find in Highland Malts.

Jura

From the Isle of Jura, medium peat aromas with a light delicate warm finish.

Highland Park

From the Orkney Isles, aromatic in style with a smokey peat aromas tempered by sherry cask ageing to give a well-rounded heather and honey finish.

Talisker

From the Isle of Skye this is a robust peaty island malt, richly flavoured maritime malt with more than a hint of brine on the finish.

Bunnahabhain

One of the lightest peated Islay malt as the water flows over slate rather than peat. Candied fruit aromas with a toasted nut and vanilla finish.

Laphroig 10

This is a big styled Islay Malt, aromas loaded with peat aromas, rich aromatic style.

Lagavulin 16

This is a real complexed malt, big in style with lashings of peaty aromas with a long lingering smoky aftertaste.

HIGHLAND MALTS

Highland Malts are a lot softer and more subtle than their Island cousins

Glenlivet

From the centre of Speyside, a rich soft rolling malt with a well-rounded sweet finish.

Balvenie Double Wood

Matured in two different wood barrels of American and Sherry Oak, giving the malt an extra dimension in terms of flavour.

Loch Lomond

From the "Bonny, Bonny Banks" matured in American oak barrels with a smooth delicate finish.

Old Pultney

A northern Highland coastal malt with a slight briny character with a long complexed finish.

Tomatin

From the centre of Speyside, matured in Bourbon casks as well as new filled oak barrels giving rise to aromas of vanilla and citrus tones.

Dalwhinnie

From just off the A9 in the Highlands and is one of the highest distilleries in Scotland. Delicate floral aromas with a smooth toasty finish.

Oban

From the west coast of Scotland, has a light smokey character with a soft briny finish.

Glenfiddich

Beautifully balanced due to its maturation in Oloroso sherry and Bourbon casks with a refreshing complexed finish.

Glenmorangie

Honeyed sweetness with a citrus note from this wonderful northern Highland malt. There is complexity here that shows through on the finish of Almonds and creamy vanilla.

Glen Moray

From the area of Elgin in the north of Scotland, slowly matured in traditional casks. Light in weight but very easy to drink.

Singleton

From centre of Speyside, rich, smooth and perfectly balanced with almost a Christmas fruit pudding aroma.

Haig Club

Matured in toasted oak casks with notes of honey, butterscotch and toffee on the finish.
